

PALMA DE MALLORCA

peekture

TRAVEL GUIDE

Country Spain
Climate Mediterranean
Time Zone Central European (UTC+2)

Language Catalan, Spanish
Currency Euro €
Tipping Not required
but appreciated (5-15%)

VISIT THE PEARL OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

The capital – and only – city of the Balearic Islands, Palma is settled in a large bay on the southwest coast of Mallorca. You'll enjoy your visit here with historic churches, beautiful beaches, high-end boutiques, and a booming gastronomy scene.

Things To Know

This city is one of Europe's largest marina. It has an intriguing blend of Arabic and Gothic architecture from its, it's home to several Michelin-starred restaurants, and has a vibrant LGBTQ+ scene.

Foods To Try

Tumbet, sobrassada, fideua, caldereta, coca mallorquina, sopas mallorquinas, trempo, ensaimada, tapas, botifarron, cocarrois, arroz brut, hierbas.

Local Products

Local authentic products to enjoy are olives, olive oil, almonds, pearls, sea salt, and leather goods.

Where To Explore

A few top landmarks to see are La Seu (Mallorca Cathedral), Almudaina Palace, Placa Major, Bellver Castle, Es Canyaret, Coll Baix, Valdemossa, Serra de Tramuntana, Deia, Coves del Drach, Soller, Marivent Palace, Jardí del Bisbe.

peekture

TRAVEL AND CREATE
PICTURE PERFECT MOMENTS