SEE THE HOLY SEE

Vatican, the home of the Catholic Church, the Pope and technically the smallest country in the world, is one of the popular historical and religious sites.

When To Visit

Vatican is pretty much busy all year long, but if papal audience is not of interest, avoid Wednesdays. Skip the holidays and weekends too for less crowd.

Papal Audience

Papal audience is your chance to see the Pope and receive his blessings. It happens every Wednesday and you may experience it for free but must register and claim tickets ahead.

Dress Appropriately

Like many places of worship, Vatican and its museums enforce a dress code that prohibits shorts, hats, sleeveless tops, miniskirts, and articles of clothing that leave the knees exposed.

Where To Explore

St. Peter's Basilica, Sistine Chapel, Vatican Museum.

Must sees inside the Vatican Museum are Bramante Staircase, Tapestries Hall, Raphael's Transfiguration, Pinecone Courtyard, Gallery of Maps.
